

Industrial Maintenance Mechanic

Job Overview

The maintenance mechanic will have the opportunity to work with various types of equipment and systems in an industrial environment. Become an essential part of our business operation by keeping our systems running. We understand and appreciate the crucial part our mechanic will perform. Here you will use your mechanical expertise to ensure top-level operation of vital mechanical equipment. Equipment to be maintained include Telso ultrasonic welders, Arburg over molders, electric and pneumatic zip tie guns, pneumatic crimpers, and others.

Responsibilities

- Install, assemble, and test new machines and equipment
- Perform routine preventative maintenance for each piece of equipment
- Inspect machines regularly for signs of malfunctions
- Add and move compressed air branch lines and drops
- Respond to equipment related work requests and help determine root causes of equipment failure
- Document equipment issues and repairs in CMM
- Various building system repairs such as door hardware, lighting, and electrical

Qualifications / Experience

- Experience with industrial equipment repairs
- Experience troubleshooting electrical, hydraulic, and pneumatic systems
- Excellent verbal communication skills
- OSHA 10 or OSHA 30 certification a plus
- California driver's license

Education

High school diploma

Trade school certifications a plus